

WESTMINSTER PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

THE ORDER OF WORSHIP

Sunday, March 18, 2018

9:00 and 11:15 a.m.

Fifth Sunday in Lent

THE PREPARATION FOR WORSHIP

It is the aim of this church to present a religion as considerate of persons as the teaching of Jesus, as devoted to justice as the Old Testament prophets, as responsive to truth as science, as beautiful as art, as intimate as the home, and as indispensable as the air we breathe. For the achievement of this goal we bid you welcome, and invite your attendance, your prayers, your gifts, and your service.

OUR APPROACH TO GOD

RITUAL OF FRIENDSHIP, COMMON CONCERNS OF THE CHURCH

 CHORAL INTROIT "Kyrie" Russian Orthodox CALL TO WORSHIP

Leader: In you, O God, I take refuge; you are my hope and my trust.

People: You are my rock and my fortress. I will continually praise you.

Leader: Let us worship God.

* HYMN OF PRAISE No. 361 AURELIA "O Christ, the Great Foundation"

* PRAYER OF CONFESSION

O God, hear us as we confess our sins toward our families and friends. If love is patient, why are we irritable? If love is kind, why are we hostile? If love is not jealous or boastful, why do we flaunt our achievements in the presence of others? O God, in Jesus you have shown love which forgives imperfection; only in him can we forsake childish ways. Forgive our lack of love, and have mercy upon us.

* ASSURANCE OF PARDON

Leader: Friends, believe the good news of the gospel.

People: In Jesus Christ we are forgiven. Amen.

* GLORIA PATRI (Hymnal, No. 581)

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost; as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen, Amen.

 BAPTISM OF FINLEY ALICE BARNHARDT and ANN YATES GAULT

* AFFIRMATION OF FAITH - The Apostles' Creed

I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead and buried; the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead. I believe in the Holy Ghost; the holy catholic church; the communion of saints; the forgiveness of sins; the resurrection of the body; and the life everlasting. Amen.

ANNUAL CARNIVAL

The children, parents and staff of Westminster Weekday School are so excited about our upcoming Annual School Carnival. Come and join in all the fun! The Carnival is Saturday, March 24, from 10:00 a.m.-12:00 noon in the gym, fellowship hall, and on Westminster Drive. There will also be a fire truck in the Augusta Road parking lot for the children to visit. Don't forget to bring cash or checks so you can participate in our Amazing Prize Drawing. Feel free to pick up a Prize Packet in the school office even if you don't have a child at WWS. You do not have to be present to win! There will also be delicious casseroles and baked goods available for you to purchase at the carnival to stock your kitchen. See you there!

In today's Old Testament Lesson, Jeremiah is called by God to serve as a prophet to the nations. Jeremiah protests that he is too young and unskilled to bear the weight of God's call. Jeremiah's excuses are rejected, and God arms Jeremiah with the assurance that it is in fact his time and he will not be alone in this work. Jeremiah, as it turns out, wasn't too young or too unskilled and ends up being a pretty big deal.

In a town called Madison, Mississippi, there's a picture of me hanging in the hallway of a school. Wearing a tuxedo. Who knows what the world will hand out when sitting for your senior portrait? What a sleepy-eyed expectation of the world and my future in it must I have had the summer before my senior year in high school. My naivety frozen in time. Where was my wife whom I had not yet met? My children, unborn and unnamed? Who looked after them while I held that crooked smile for the camera? Today, the picture with that crooked smile and that tuxedo watches over hallways where children of those who were children fumble with growing up and the accompanying awkwardness and anxiety. All the while my assured, yet, crooked smile leads viewers to believe I, as a member of the senior class of 1990, had outgrown all those troubles.

A few weeks back I was impressed while watching our high school seniors share their hopes and anxieties for the future while reflecting on their memories of growing up in Westminster. I thought about myself at that age. A couple of weeks later, we all watched as unspeakable things happened in the hallways of another school and I thought about myself at that age.

I would like to go back and see that picture of me hanging in that hallway, unhinged now from the past, ignorant of the future, beholden only to the present. As a young person you are set up to believe that the future and God's use for your life are just over the horizon. That once you are a little bit older, a little more educated, a little more experienced – the promise of your future will be revealed to you. Just like Jeremiah wanted God to believe, we are raised to believe that it's not time yet. But the truth is that the time and the future is now and the future doesn't come to us in a big box with a bow and a don't-open-until card. It comes to us every day and it comes to us every hour, every minute and every second.

It's the only future we're ever going to get, and we are all called – young and old – to do God's work in it right now.

WESTMINSTER PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

ADULT EDUCATION OPPORTUNITIES

In mid February we began the observance of Lent, which is the season that prepares us for the most holy of Christian celebrations, Easter. As we welcome the warm, longer days that spring brings, it is fitting that we prepare our spirits and minds with the warmth, hope, and grace that Jesus brings. Adult Sunday School is one of the opportunities that Westminster offers to challenge our thinking, deepen our commitment to Christ, and connect and reconnect with other church members. Join us in a place where fellowship, questions, and love abound. The following classes will be offered on Sundays, from 10-11:00 a.m., starting March 4 and ending April 29.

1. Good News, the Gospel, Faux News, and What's New?

This term this ongoing discussion class will explore a series of topics from “faux news” to immigration to racial and sexual equality. The focus will be on three questions: What do I know? What do I believe? What should I do?

Discussion Leader: Judith Chandler-Huse Room: 210

2. $2.00 A Day - Living on Almost Nothing in America and Coming of Age in the Other America

Join us this Sunday, March 18, to hear Sonya O'Neal and Joy Messner share stories from Thornwell. Westminster supports Thornwell through our Witness & Service budget and connects members of the church to help provide hope for hurting children and their families. Thornwell maintains operations in fourteen different locations throughout Florida, Georgia, and South Carolina. With over 130 professionals on staff, Thornwell is committed to continuing their ministry to meet the growing need and offer a complete continuum of care.

Teacher: Susan McLarty Room: 209

3. Classics of Christian Spirituality

This class will enjoy some of the rich resources for deepening spiritual life by looking at four “classics” of our tradition: Augustine: Confessions, Juliana of Norwich: Revelations of Divine Love, John Bunyan: Pilgrim's Progress, and Dorothy Day: The Long Loneliness. Tired of what's on T.V.? Join us.

Teacher: David Rutledge Room: 211

4. The Flock Class: Love Does: Discover a Secretly Incredible Life in an Ordinary World

This class is for adults, 30-ish and 40-ish, constantly seeking to follow God's will through education, mission, and fellowship with one another. Using a book of compelling stories by Bob Goff, this discussion class will look at the multiple whimsical modes of God's love and how following God's lead can result in a joy-filled and changed life.

Discussion Leaders: Ben Alexander, Kevin Lancaster, Christa Likes, LeAnne White
Room: 213

5. The Text This Week

Join us each Sunday as we examine more deeply the text from that day's worship. This is a discussion based class and is an informal way to get to know others and help find your place at WPC. We will enjoy coffee and conversation as we delve into the Sunday Scripture, sermon, and events from the week's news.

Co-Teachers: Leigh Stuckey, Jean Weaver Room: 212
