You are never tired, O Lord, of doing us good. Let us never be weary of doing your service. But as you have pleasure in the well-being of your servants, let us take pleasure in the service of our Lord and abound in your work and in your love and praise evermore. Amen.

Forgive us, gracious Lord, and grant us newfound courage. Make our imaginations more faithful, make our hearts more hopeful, and make our wills more like the will of Christ, so that his compassion and grace would flow from us at all times, to all people. Amen.

People: In Jesus Christ we are forgiven.

IHN DECEMBER 9 – 16

It's the final IHN (formerly known as GAIHN) week of 2018! The holidays are a wonderful time to celebrate and show our gratitude by helping WPC provide a safe and warm space for up to three families who are experiencing homelessness. We are looking for volunteers to act as hosts or provide dinner to our guests during the week of December 9-16. You can sign up at <https://bit.ly/2JXLtBr> or in person this Sunday in the Sanctuary Atrium. If you have any additional questions or want to learn more, please contact Holly Vanderwal at hollyv04@hotmail.com.

IHN (GAIHN) needs your help and donations. Imagine that you are a child in temporary housing and your suitcase is a garbage bag. Imagine your lunch pail is a used grocery bag. Imagine not having a backpack to carry school books. Please consider donating small suitcases, gym bags, backpacks or lunch pails so these sweet children we host may feel just a little bit better each day. We thank you!

*“And whatever you do, whether in word or deed,
do it all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through him.”*

Colossians 3:17

You get out of something what you put into it. I've heard that cliché many times and waver on its validity in my life. Should I do things in order to get something out of them or should I do things from the goodness of my unselfish heart? I remember hearing once in a sermon that you shouldn't go to church to get something out of it, but rather to worship as a thanksgiving to God. There are times when I have wondered about a program, a sermon, or the 7th/8th grade Sunday school class when no one wanted to contribute to the conversation...Am I really getting anything out of this?

However, when I reflect back over the years I have been a member of Westminister, I see the multiple ways when I have chosen to be involved and given of my time that I have gotten so much more out of it than I ever could have hoped for. The Sunday night dinners and programs have given me time to get to know my fellow members. Teaching Sunday school classes allowed me to see other children's faith and in some ways hopefully helped it to grow. As my children recently told me, "It's Elementary!" is where they have learned the most about the Bible. My recent mission trip to the Dominican gave me a renewed sense of how God used all our church members in different ways to witness and provide for a community in need.

My yearly financial commitment is one way that I give and put myself All In into this church. Supporting the church financially has allowed Heritage Lecturers to stretch my faith, Meals on Wheels to operate, Pakistani girls to go to school, and missionaries to spread the love of Jesus. My pledge to this church helps to provide and support people in need in this world, strengthen my faith, and creates an opportunity to build my children's relationship with God. In this case, I give in thanksgiving to God, and I know that I'm getting a whole lot more in return than what I give.

Amanda Sanders
