THE ORDER OF WORSHIP

Sunday, March 10, 2019

9:00 and 11:15 a.m.

First Sunday in Lent

PRAYER OF PREPARATION

God of love, as in Jesus Christ you gave yourself to us, so may we give ourselves to you, living according to your holy will. Keep our feet firmly in the way where Christ leads us; make our mouths speak the truth that Christ teaches us; fill our bodies with the life that is Christ within us. In his holy name we pray. Amen.

GATHERING THE COMMUNITY

WELCOME AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

Leader: The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you.

People: And also with you.

PREPARING FOR GOD'S WORD

PRELUDE Trumpet Air Purcell

* CALL TO WORSHIP

Leader: O Christ, out of your fullness we have all received grace upon grace.

People: You are our eternal hope; you are patient and full of mercy; you are generous to all.

Leader: On the cross you were wounded for our transgressions and were bruised for our iniquities.

People: O Christ, you are our life and resurrection, our peace and reconciliation.

All: Let us worship God!

* HYMN OF PRAISE No. 23 AUSTRIAN HYMN

"God, You Spin the Whirling Planets"

* PRAYER OF CONFESSION

God of mercy, you sent Jesus Christ to seek and save the lost. We confess that we have strayed from you and turned aside from your way. We are misled by pride, for we see ourselves as pure when we are stained, wise when we are foolish, and great when we are small. We have failed in love, neglected justice, and ignored your truth. Have compassion on us, and forgive our sin. Return us to paths of righteousness through Jesus Christ, our Savior. Amen.

* ASSURANCE OF PARDON

Leader: Friends, believe the good news of the gospel.

People: In Jesus Christ we are forgiven.

* GLORIA PATRI (Hymnal, No. 581)

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost; as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen, Amen.

At 11:15 a.m. worship, children in K5-First grade leave for Children's Church.

The observance of Lent was not part of my church upbringing, so Lent has always been a bit of a mystery to me. Growing up as a Methodist in Southwest Georgia, Lent was simply something my Catholic friends observed. And to be quite honest, it did not seem like much fun. They were giving up things I really liked, such as chocolate, and had to eat fish on Friday. As I am not a big fan of giving up things I like or of fish, you can understand why Lent was not of much interest to me.

Over time, I have become more interested in Lent. A quick Google search reveals several interesting facts about Lent:

1. Lent is not mentioned in the Bible, though many of the practices that are characteristic of Lent, such as fasting, are seen throughout the Bible.
2. Lent is said to be 40 days, but that does not include Sundays, so the number of elapsed days is 46.
3. 'Lent' is a shortened version of the Old English word 'lencten,' which means the season of spring.
4. The Catholics are credited with starting the tradition of Lent around the year 325, from which it spread to many other Christian denominations over time.

When you step away from the specific acts and focus on the purpose, the season of Lent is a time of preparation for the resurrection of Christ. While this preparation has often been characterized by fasting, abstinence from vices, financial gifts, and repentance, it does not have to be observed in those ways. This was surprising to me, as that is what I have always associated with Lent. But when you look at the handful of facts above and consider the intention behind Lent, you can begin to understand that such traditional approaches are but a small handful of the potential methods of preparation.

Recently, a number of churches in the PC(USA) have sought to use the Lenten season to engage the congregation and encourage spiritual growth in ways other than the historic Lenten traditions. While there are any number of creative programs out there, the main idea is to promote focused and intentional spiritual growth during Lent as a way or preparing for the resurrection, as opposed to fasting or abstinence. This is appealing to me, and perhaps to some of you, as it pushes me to learn and seek to understand more about our faith. I say this not as a condemnation of the historical approach. As many people observe Lent in the traditional way, it clearly resonates with many and any practices that strengthens one's faith are wonderful. However, for me, having an alternative way to observe Lent is welcome.

Some of the different programs churches have used include introduction of additional spiritual practices such as meditation where the participants take a daily Bible verse and meditate on it, groups focused on caring for our environment and living simply, creating opportunities for connecting to others in the congregation, and discussion or book groups based on the themes of the resurrection. These illustrate that it can be both individually focused as well as group activities.

As I was looking at these types of programs, I realized the riches we, as a congregation, have at WPC. Think about the book clubs, reading groups, interest groups (hiking, knitting, etc.), and mission opportunities our church provides. It is an amazing array of opportunities to engage and to grow that are available year-round. It is simply a matter of saying "I will participate." Perhaps we all should consider trying something new and taking advantage of one of the many opportunities in front of us during Lent. Here is to a Lenten season of spiritual growth!
