

WESTMINSTER PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

THE ORDER OF WORSHIP

Sunday, October 27, 2019

9:00 and 11:15 a.m.

Twentieth Sunday After Pentecost

PREPARATION FOR WORSHIP

“Suppose we think of God not so much in terms of everything that we desire, which seems a little acquisitive, but in terms of everything that desires us, everything that draws us out of ourselves and calls upon us, calling from below being to what is beyond, that summons up what is best in us, that asks us to go out of our creaturely way of being and live generously, to live and love, to live and let live, to love and let love, to live by loving unconditionally? ... What then?”

— John D. Caputo, The Weakness of God: A Theology of the Event

GATHERING THE COMMUNITY

* CALL TO WORSHIP

Leader: Is not this the fast I choose:
to loose the bonds of injustice;

People: to share your bread with the hungry;

Leader: to bring the homeless poor into your house;

People: when you see the naked, to clothe them?

Leader: Then your light shall break forth like the dawn,

People: and your healing shall spring up quickly.

All: Let us worship God!

* HYMN OF PRAISE No. 385

OLD HUNDREDTH

“All People That on Earth Do Dwell”

* PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Eternal God: you created us and the world around us, yet you came to us as a servant, asking that we serve one another likewise. Like Peter, we protest your commandment, afraid of what it will mean for us. We prefer grand gestures to acts of service, public affirmation to vulnerable sacrifice. In our pursuit of glory, we have failed to fully love one another. We have pledged loyalty, but in our actions betrayed, deserted, and denied you. Forgive us and restore us. Challenge us to live in service to your creation, not the world’s status quo. Amen.

* ASSURANCE OF PARDON

Leader: Friends, believe the good news of the gospel.

People: In Jesus Christ we are forgiven.

* GLORIA PATRI (Hymnal, No. 581)

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost; as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen, Amen.

At 9:00 a.m., K5 & 1st Graders are invited to Children’s Church.

RESPONDING TO GOD’S WORD

* AFFIRMATION OF FAITH

The Apostles’ Creed

I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth, And in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; he descended into hell; the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead. I believe in the Holy Ghost; the holy catholic Church; the communion of saints; the forgiveness of sins; the resurrection of the body; and the life everlasting. Amen.

IHN

When our family moved to South Carolina from Virginia in 2004 with our older daughter, Murray, I found it very difficult to assimilate into the Greenville community. We had no family close by and few friends in the area. For almost three years I wished we had moved to anywhere other than Greenville, SC.

Thankfully we joined Westminster Presbyterian Church just three weeks before our second daughter, Julia, was born. Becoming a member of the Westminster congregation enabled me to feel a part of something bigger than myself and to focus less on the loneliness I felt. Over the years our family has found a welcoming church home where our interfaith family has experienced God's abounding love and grace. We are watching Murray and Julia grow up surrounded by adults and friends who nurture our children and are allowing them to cultivate their own faith. WPC has opened our hearts and minds to a "thoughtful Christianity" by challenging us through Bible studies, mission trips, and Sunday School classes. We have found role models in the generations of WPC staff and members who give, share, and work together to make Westminster Presbyterian Church and our world a better place.

Belonging to the community of faith at Westminster means so much to my family and to me. As we reflect on all the blessings we have been given, we give back to our church with gratitude and thankfulness.

May you prayerfully consider your gift as you reflect on what being a part of Westminster means to you.

WESTMINSTER PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

NOVEMBER NIGHTS November 3 and 10, 2019

Join your church family the first two Sunday evenings in November for worship, fellowship, and education. A Vespers Service begins in the Sanctuary at 5:30 p.m., followed by dinner starting at 5:45 p.m. The rooms for ages K3-5th grade will be open at 6:20 p.m. but programs and classes for all will begin at 6:30 p.m. We are all finished by 7:30 p.m. A nursery is available for those K2 and younger.

VESPERS WORSHIP & MEDITATION

This year's services will focus on "Strangers and Tables," and explore the welcome of God and our reluctance to put it to practice. Vespers services are brief evening services that focus on prayer and contemplation and include secular and sacred music, liturgical prayer, and a brief meditation.

ADULT CLASSES

- "I Was in Prison and You Visited Me: The Christian Response to Mass Incarceration"
Leaders: Kate Weaver Patterson & Jerry Blessingame (Room 211)
The United States has the highest incarceration rate in the world — while we make up 4% of the world's population, we hold 22% of the world's prisoners. Team taught by WPC member Kate Weaver Patterson and Soteria CDC Founder Jerry Blessingame, this class will explore the explosive rise of mass incarceration in the U.S. over the last forty years. We'll hear personal stories from individuals who have been impacted, grapple with appropriate response to this uniquely American phenomenon, particularly in light of the disparate impact on lower socioeconomic classes and communities of color, and discuss how we as Christians are called to respond.

- "The Best Story Jesus Ever Told"
Leader: Ben Dorr (Room 209)
This class will explore what is traditionally known as The Parable of the Prodigal Son. It is perhaps the most popular of Jesus's parables and certainly one that is told and retold so often, we think we know it well. At the same time, there are many ways to hear this parable. Is it a story of repentance and forgiveness? A story of being lost and being found? A story of separation and belonging? A story of judgment and grace? A story about a particular family or everyone's family? We will spend two weeks examining the many themes of this parable and the ways in which we might hear this story anew.

ACTIVITIES FOR YOUTH

All youth are invited to vespers (look for MK & Lauren to sit together), dinner with our church family, and then separate programs for Middlers and Senior Highs. Our youth programs during November Nights will explore how our faith intersects with real life issues that many of our peers face — mental illness and addiction.
